Because the law requires information as to such accounts covering a full six months before you have filed your lawsuit, you must attach a sheet covering transactions in your own account – prepared by each institution where you have been in custody during that six-month period. As already stated, you must also have the Certificate below completed by an authorized officer at each institution.

Dear Honorable Judge Joan Gottschall

CASE 18-CV-05922

The total cash received in the last 12 months (Since October 12, 2019) is $59,021.96. Please see itemized list (revenue, income, loans) which shows where all the money came from. All of the $59,021.96 was spent on expenditures needed to survive. (Please see itemized list of Expenditures). I do not take drugs nor do I have a drinking habit nor do I spend money on a girlfriend. I pretty much keep to myself. I have all of my receipts and am prepared to show how all the money was spent. Most of my expenses ($35,000) were attorney fees or repayment of attorney loans. Some of the money received is in my checking account (about $250). This $35,000 was needed to defend myself from criminal charges resulting from Detective Campinagro's malicious prosecution. These charges have all been dismissed and expunged.

Please note that in order to survive I have had to borrow $9,550 this past 12 months. Please see itemized list of loans). I have to pay about $360 interest per month on these loans.

I do not have the money to pay for an attorney to represent me to recover the $77,348.66 in financial losses which occurred over a three-year period. I have been damaged emotionally I and psychotically as a result of the court order which forbade me to see my daughter for two years. I do not know how that loss can be expressed in monetary terms.

If I cannot reach a settlement with the defense before trial, could I please have an attorney to represent me?
